

Writing Assignment 1 (Low Stakes)

Time, culture, and technology

Homework Question: The numerical system has been with humanity since the creation of the counting system and has been with us ever since. The numerical system is so close to us that we unknowingly use it almost in all daily activities. Write three daily activities that you unconsciously use a number system without realizing it.

Student's Name: _____